“The time is now to build a better tomorrow”

About The Institute of Management Accountants (IMA)

The association for accountants and financial professionals working in business. It is one of the largest and most respected associations focused exclusively on advancing the accounting profession.

Globally, IMA supports the profession through research, the CMA® (Certified Management Accountant) program, continuing education, networking, and advocacy of the highest ethical business practices. IMA has a global network of more than 73,000 members in 120 countries and 200 local chapter communities.

What is CMA?

The CMA is unique among professional and academic credentials, designed specifically for accounting and financial management professionals in business.

Achieving the CMA demonstrates your professional expertise in financial planning, analysis, control, decision support, and professional ethics – essential skills sought after by successful organizations and their financial team leaders.

Whether you want to enhance your value within your current organization—or expand your career potential—the CMA is the key to maximizing your professional potential.

The Value of the CMA

The CMA (Certified Management Accountant) is the advanced professional certification specifically designed to measure the accounting and financial management skills that drive business performance.

Achieving the CMA credential demonstrates your mastery of financial planning, analysis, control, and decision support, as well as professional ethics.

The CMA credential is...

- Focused—On the critical skills you use in business.
- Respected—Leading employers seek to hire and promote CMAs. Companies such as 3M, Alcoa, AT&T, Bank of America, Boeing, Cargill, Caterpillar, ConAgra, Hewlett-Packard, Johnson & Johnson, Microsoft, Procter & Gamble, KeyCorp, Whirlpool, Saudi Aramco, Verizon and Xerox have CMAs in key management roles.
- Valued—CMAs earn higher compensation than noncertified professionals.
- Convenient—CCMA exams are offered in hundreds of locations worldwide.

CMA and Your Career

- CMA certification can expand your opportunities in your current business or your future career.
- CMA professionals are employed to fill positions requiring critical accounting and financial management skills by leading employers from multinational corporations to private firms, academic institutions, and not for-profit organizations.
- CMA certification will make you part of a network of over 65,000 credentialed peers worldwide.
- CMA is the certification program with the potential to deliver significant return on your investment.
- CMA Professionals earn nearly $30,000 more in average total annual compensation than non certified peers.

CMA Examination Preparation Seminars on Location

The CMA exam is designed specifically to validate mastery of the advanced skills required to manage finance functions within an organization, enabling you to deliver value in today's complex business environment.

There are two parts to the CMA exam, consisting of four hours each, which can be taken in any order.

The exam is structured as follows:

Part I:

Financial Planning, Performance and Control:

- External financial reporting decisions 15%
- Planning, budgeting, and forecasting 30%
- Performance measurement 20%
- Cost management 20%
- Internal controls 15%

Part II:

Financial Decision Making:

- Financial statement analysis 25%
- Corporate finance 20%
- Decision analysis 20%
- Risk Management 10%
- Investment decisions 15%
- Professional ethics 10%

By focusing only on advanced accounting and financial management skills, the exam is rigorous yet responsive to the needs of the marketplace and time-constrained professionals.
